Bowling Green Stands 2nd In Nation

BG Posts Outstanding Decade

Bowling Green State University's football team, during the current decade, has posted a won-lost record that ranks it second among the 113 major college grid teams in the country.

In the past eight years of action, the Falcons have recorded a 59-15-1 mark for an excellent .793 percentage. This leaves Bowling Green behind only Alabama that has come up with a 71-6-3 record during the 1960-67 era.

Bowling Green has run up some outstanding marks during these eight seasons. The 1964 team was 9-1 while the 1960 squad finished at 8-1. The 1967 unit had the decades's poorest record, 6-4.

In the Mid-American Conference, the Falcons haven't exactly been standing still as they have rolled to four league crowns in eight seasons. Bowling Green's 1961, 1962, 1964 and 1965 teams either won or tied for the MAC title.

A look at the other teams in the conference shows Miami ranked in 23rd place with Ohio and Western Michigan ranked 43rd and 54th respectively. Kent State, Toledo and Marshall are now holding down the 87th, 95th, 97th spots.

This decade, the Falcons have compiled the second best record in the nation but Bowling Green's fine record actually stretches through 13 seasons. Bowling Green has now rolled to 13 straight winning years on the gridiron.

During this winning streak, the Falcons have compiled a record of 96-20-5 under coaches Doyt Perry and Bob Gibson. These 13 seasons have helped Bowling Green to an overall record of 233-124-42 in its first 49 years of football action.

New coach Don Nehlen is hoping to continue the winning tradition as the Falcons step into their 50th year of play.

Falcons Open 1968 Season

P. J. NYITRAY
Key Performer

Few football teams in the nation can claim 13 straight winning seasons but that is exactly the way things are at Bowling Green State University as the Falcons move into the 1968 year.

It all started back in 1955 when Doyt Perry's first team rolled to a 7-1-1 record. The streak continued through last season as the Falcons got number 13 with a 6-4 mark.

Only two coaches, Perry and Bob Gibson, have been in charge during those 13 seasons. Perry directed the Falcons for 10 seasons and racked up a 77-10-5 record before Gibson took over and got a 19-9 mark in three years.

This season, there will be some changes made as Don Nehlen takes over for Gibson but Bowling Green's new coach is hoping that the 13-year string doesn't come to a halt in his first campaign.

He has 20 lettermen back from last year's team so this statistic should help things along for Nehlen. In 1967, the Falcons compiled a 6-4 record and a 2-4 mark in the Mid-American Conference.

Bowling Green's 20 lettermen are well distributed through the lineup with Vaughn Ferrell, Jim Hodakievic, Ed Jones and Tom Standing back at ends. Carl Battershell, Tom Lloyd and Dave Roese are veteran tackles while Doug Ashbridge, Joe Green, Bob Spencer and Dennis Zolciak are the returning offensive guards and linebackers. Larry Watson, last year's starter, is back at center.

In the backfield, P. J. Nyitray is back at quarterback with a total of six halfbacks, Ed Coletti, Bob Maltarich, Fred Mathews, Rick Perrin, Mike Shepherd and Bob Zimpfer, ready to carry the mail on offense or intercept opponents' passes on defense. Charles Radich is a letter winning fullback.

Based only on last year's performances, this veteran material isn't the greatest in the league so Nehlen will be calling on non-letter winners like monster George Gregory and linebacker Dave Polak to help out.

Sophomores like tackle Larran Meador plus guards Bill Roeder and Dave Finley could also play big roles for the 1968 Falcons and might battle their way right into starting berths.

Offensively, the backfield looks able and experienced with Nyitray, Zimpfer, Mathews and Radich the best bets for the jobs. However, as was the case last year, they may have trouble moving the ball unless the lettermen and sophomores blend themselves into a solid offensive line.

Defensively, the Falcons look to be mean and talented. Gregory and Polak step into a unit that suffers few losses that figure to hurt. End Dave Seiter, linebacker Roger Schmidt, monster Charles Burley and safety Joe Pearce are gone but should be more than adequately replaced.

In the specialty departments, Al Silva will probably handle the field goal, extra point and kickoff work with sophomore Art Curtis or Terry Bork in charge of the punting. Curtis sported a 37.7 yard average for the 1967 freshman team while Silva booted two out of four field goal attempts in 1967.

Bob Zimpfer will handle the majority of the punt and kickoff returns and should do another excellent job. Last season, he brought back 23 punts for 379 yards while returning 18 kickoffs for 384 yards.

Look for Bowling Green to have a scrappy, interesting team in 1968 that will blend letter winning and sophomore talent.

Bowling Green's Halftime Show Features Over 2,800 Musicians

Jim Bair
Fremont Ross Band Director

Thirty-seven high school bands, totaling over 2,800 musicians under the baton of guest director James D. Bair, will be supplying the music for today's halftime show as the 1968 Falcons open their season at Doyt L. Perry Field.

Today's guest musicians will be entertaining at halftime with four numbers. Perry Field will be filled with music as the bands play "Host of Freedom March", "Step to the Rear", "Great Gate of Kiev", and "Battle Hymn of the Republic".

Mr. Bair, the director of bands at Fremont Ross High School, has had an outstanding musical career.

He received his BME degree from Baldwin-Wallace in 1959. During his four years at B-W, he played in the band, orchestra and opera orchestra. As a senior,

Mark Kelly
BGSU Band Director

he was presented the "Most Outstanding Musician Award".

In 1961, he did graduate work at Ohio State University. He received his MME degree from VanderCook College of Music, Chicago, Ill., in 1967. While at VanderCook, he played solo clarinet and solo flute for two summers.

He has also had wide experience in the high school band field. From 1959-1962, Mr. Bair was an assistant at Kenton High School before moving to Ashtabula Edge-wood as director of bands from 1962-1966.

At Fremont Ross, Mr. Bair's bands have always received superior ratings at state contests. During the past two years, the Ross band has received straight ones in A-I competition.

Mr. Bair is still active as a performer on the sax, clarinet and flute, having played first clarinet and first flute for the past two years in the Fremont Symphony Orchestra.

During the past year, he has been active as a judge of bands and woodwinds as well as a clarinet clinician.

With this type of background, it is easy to see that Bowling Green's football fans can expect an outstanding halftime performance today from the assembled bands.

The following high school bands and their conductors will be participating in today's halftime show: Arlington, under the direction of Ron Cable; Ayersville, Glenn Walker; Bloomdale, Richard Shirley; Bowling Green, Anthony Roberts; Bryan, Glenn Miller; Celina, Hugh Callison; Clyde, Jim Mercer; Columbus Grove, Bob Montooth; Defiance, Vince Polce; Fostoria, Don Perrine; Galion, W. E. Schnegelsberger; Genoa, Verlin Eash; Hamler, Phil Binkley.

Springfield Local, Dave Gruetter; Hillsdale, Jim Saker; Danbury Township, Bob Stewart; Indian Lake, Carl Giordano; Liberty Center, Ron Follas; Perry, Dale Laukhuf; Maumee, Jerry Kiger; Monroeville, Larry Gillaspie; McComb, Jack Watson; North Baltimore, Don Carroll; Oakwood, Dave Chonko; Perrysburg, Judith Justus; Rossford, Elmer Girten; Oregon Clay, Charles Neal.

Paulding, Ernest Burnett; Eastwood, Lawrence McCormick; Swanton, Frank North; Toledo Bowsher, Jim Grabill; Otsego, Dan Whitmer; Upper Sandusky, Dave Tschiegg; Van Wert, Jay Hall; Woodmore, Dick Kondick; Lakota, Craig Sievert; Malinta-Grelton, Clyde Kunkle.

In addition to the halftime performance, Bowling Green State University's outstanding 120-piece marching band, under the direction of Mark Kelly, will perform during the pregame show as well as playing a postgame concert.

Falcon Coach Don Nehlen

Nehlen, BGSU's 11th Head Coach

Don Nehlen, Bowling Green State University's defensive coordinator for the past three seasons, was named as Falcons' head football coach, after the 1967 season.

Nehlen, who quarterbacked Bowling Green's Falcons from 1955 through 1957 and landed a second team All Mid-American Conference berth during his senior year, replaces Bob Gibson who marked up a 19-9 record in three seasons at Bowling Green.

In discussing his appointment, Nehlen said, "I am tremendously pleased and honored to be given this opportunity and I hope I can continue the fine football tradition at Bowling Green State University."

During his years as a player at Bowling Green, Nehlen played under Bowling Green's current Athletic Director Doyt L. Perry. Perry said, "Nehlen was a quarterback on my first team at Bowling Green. His enthusiasm, spirit and energy were contagious at that time and they have continued throughout his coaching career. I am confident that Don will make a fine football coach for Bowling Green."

Nehlen is Bowling Green's 11th head football coach in the Falcons' 50-year intercollegiate history. He is only the second, Doyt Perry being the first, Bowling Green player to return to his alma mater as head coach.

As Bowling Green's defensive coach, Nehlen established a fine record. In three seasons, his defensive squads yielded only 361 points in 28 games for an average of slightly under 13 points a game. His teams recorded six shutouts.

In his three seasons as Bowling Green's signal caller, Nehlen took to the air 163 times and completed 80 for 1,173 yards and 11 touchdowns. He also scored six touchdowns for a total of 36 points while rushing 132 times for 271 yards.

During his entire coaching career, Nehlen has had nothing but success. After graduating from Bowling Green in June of 1958, Nehlen became the reserve football coach at Mansfield Senior High School.

From 1959-1962, Nehlen was the head football coach at Canton South High School where his teams recorded a 24-11-2 record. Nehlen won two titles and tied for another in the Stark County Class AA League in four years.

In 1963, Nehlen was at the University of Cincinnati as backfield coach. In 1964, he returned to the high school ranks as the head coach at Canton McKinley High School. That year, his squad compiled a 9-1 record and finished second in the state. His overall high school record was 33-12-2 and his team won 24 of their last 27 games.

Nehlen graduated from Canton Lincoln High School in 1954 where he lettered for two years as a quarterback and landed All-City and All-County honors. He also earned a total of seven letters in basketball and baseball and was voted as the Outstanding Athlete in Lincoln's 1954 graduating class.

Nehlen, age 32, received his Bachelor of Science in Education degree from Bowling Green in 1958 and then earned a Masters Degree at Kent State University in 1965.

He married the former Merry Ann Chopson in 1958 and has two children, Danny and Vicky.

BOWLING GREEN UNIVERSITY'S

Bowling Green State University's new audio center director William Schurk shows a student how to operate the system. The audio center is another of Bowling Green's progressive steps in the field of quality education.

Eavesdropping on the speeches of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Lee Harvey Oswald's mother as she reads her son's letters, or the state funeral of Sir Winston Churchill is the latest thing in Bowling Green State University's library.

It started with the opening of a new audio center, meant to serve mainly as a place where students can round out classroom material with pertinent recordings. The center's daily increasing assortment of over 2,000 records and tapes can also be used for research, according to William L. Schurk, director.

Listening centers such as Bowling Green's are "what's happening" in many campus libraries sensitive to the changing tempo of education. "They're a product of the spreading realization that learning should involve all the senses," Mr. Schurk said.

Class assignments in folklore and popular culture are likely to be the most popular reasons for using the center. Recordings by Frank Sinatra, Woody Guthrie, Bob Dylan, Elvis Presley and even the Beatles have been stocked for use in connection with these classes.

The record collection also includes two very rare discs made in 1920 by and for the Ku Klux Klan. They feature such choice numbers as "Daddy Swiped Our Last Clean Sheet."

To use the center, students locate the catalog number of the tape or record they want from files near the center's control room. When they submit a request card, they are given a set of headphones and directed to a nearby listening booth.

Their selection is transmitted from a closed control room equipped with five tape recorders, two turntables and an AM-FM tuner. Up to seven of these program sources can be used simultaneously, to accommodate a maximum of 24 students.

With additional equipment, the center's capacity can be expanded to handle 40 students at once, Mr. Schurk pointed out.

Along with the center's record and tape collections are a number of record periodicals, a file of current catalogs, price lists from nearly 350 dealers and manufacturers, and several specialized discographies.

An assortment of early record catalogs boasts a reprint of the 1905 edition of the Victor Talking Machine Company's available recordings.

Much of the work in building the collection of recordings and supporting material has been done only since last July, when Mr. Schurk became a member of the Bowling Green library staff.

A 1966 graduate of Bowling Green who received his master's degree at Western Reserve University last year, Mr. Schurk has been a record collector for the past 15 years. One of his specialities is discography, the organization of recordings according to subject.

Eager to see the audio center collection grow, he has contributed nearly 400 of his own discs and hopes others also will donate records they no longer want. "All speeds and subjects will be appreciated," he said.

Nearly 1,000 records in the current collection were given by Bowling Green's three radio stations.

Mr. Schurk is pictured above operating the system that plays one of the audio center's over 2,000 recordings.

How you can "join" America's Olympic Team

You can be there at the Mexico City Olympic Games as a welcome contributor to the Olympic Fund. And be proud of it!

Training, transportation, housing and equipping America's top competitors in the Olympic Games is a major financial task. Because the United States Team is maintained almost entirely by public subscription, without government subsidy of any sort, the interest and support of every American is needed to reach the $3,500,000 goal.

If you haven't already done so, "join" in the Olympic movement now. Fill out the attached coupon, with your check for $5.00 or more and mail — today. In acknowledgment, the United States Olympic Committee will send you the handsome men's tie bar (by Danté) illustrated below. Or, if you prefer, you may select a women's bar pin with safety catch of the same design. For a $10.00 contribution, you will receive two gifts of your choice.

In 1965, Bowling Green Nips Kent, 7-6

Columbus Dispatch

This is the first of a five-part series that will appear in Bowling Green's 1968 football programs.

Brutal was the word for the weather and the football.

But after 60 minutes of wallowing in the mud, in near freezing temperatures, Bowling Green whipped Kent State, 7-6, on Oct. 23, 1965, in one of the fiercest defensive games in the Mid-American Conference that season.

The victory was an important accomplishment for the Falcons, who were upset the following Saturday by Miami, but went on to win their final two games on the road and share the MAC championship with the Redskins from Oxford.

The BeeGee-Kent clash was a natural and lended itself perfectly to pregame buildup. The Falcons had a powerful offense to go along with a traditional tough defense.

Kent, with its wide running game and strength up the middle, was considered the best the Flashes had to offer in nearly a decade.

Kent's Memorial Stadium was overtaxed with an estimated 19,000 fans despite cold rain that fell from Friday afternoon and into the early portion of the game. After the first period, the middle of the field looked like a platter of undercooked fudge.

While the bruising contest was literally won by the accurate toe of sophomore Jim Perry from Logan, W. Va., the tide of battle swung back and forth, never decisive for either combatant.

Kent scored its touchdown with 4:12 remaining in the first period when Fred Gissendaner took a Joe Siesel punt on his own 15 yard line and raced the 85 yards down the sideline through the entire Bowling Green defensive array. Tom Zuppke's miss on the extra point seemed of little consequence at the time.

In the second period, Bowling Green's tank tandem backs, Stew Williams and Tom Luettker, flailed the Kent forwards in an 86-yard march that carried to the one, where the Flashes anchored and held.

Kent punted out and this time the Falcons were not to be denied. The 45-yard TD drive was highlighted by a 22-yard run by Dave Cranmer to the Kent 28. Dwight Wallace passed to Mike Weger to the three and on the next play Luettker barreled over the middle for the tally.

Then came Perry's all-important conversion which proved the margin of the precious triumph for the forces of Coach Bob Gibson.

The Falcon defense could not have been more magnificent as it halted a Kent thrust on the one-foot line in the final period and blunted other Kent rallies throughout the scoreless second half.

Much of the drama of the conflict was wrapped up in the final minutes of both the third and fourth periods. With 3:40 remaining in the third period, Kent's great fullback Willie Asbury carried nine straight times to move the ball from the Kent 26 to the BG 24.

Kent's fleet Don Fitzgerald replaced Asbury and picked up 22 yards in three carries, two wide and one into the line. Electing to go for the score and not a field goal, Asbury replaced Fitzgerald. On fourth down, the Falcons' Weger stopped Asbury a half-foot from the goal line in the Flashes' final serious stab.

Kent actually had two more shots at winning but fumbled the chances away. A mixup in a handoff in the backfield gave BG the ball on recovery at the Kent 46. Kent then recovered a Falcon fumble on the Flashes' 39 with 4:22 to play.

Kent slugged through the mud to the BG 29 on seven straight ground plays. With 43 seconds remaining, a pass failed and Zuppke's attempt at a 49-yard field goal died when the pass from center was dropped.

Nearly all of the game statistics favored Bowling Green, but by sight margins. Game conditions took much out of each team's attack and offensive potential:

But it only flamed the defensive fires in what goes into the Mid-American Conference history books as one of its greatest football productions.

TICKETS—The two people largely responsible for Bowling Green's ticket operation, Jan Barney and Margaret Miller, are pictured working in the ticket office that is located on the east side of Doyt L. Perry Field.

Olds Vista-Cruiser: Kind of like owning your own stadium.

We didn't start out to build a stadium on wheels. Vista-Cruiser just sort of grew into one. It's bigger this year. Handles like a bigger car. Built on a longer 121-inch wheelbase. Inside, there's more room to stretch out, up and sideways. The forward-facing third seat lets you see where you're going . . . not where you've been. And there's more room to carry all the stuff you carry . . . on and under the big rear deck. Plus room for even more when you order the sturdy chrome luggage rack topside. All this, plus a 50-yard-line view of the world outside through the cool, tinted Vista-Roof. Take the whole family along for a test drive in a Vista-Cruiser at your Olds Dealer's. That way you'll have your own cheering section, too.

1968 Vista-Cruiser, in 2- and 3-seat versions, both with all the new GM safety features.

Football fans in four states, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana and Pennsylvania, will be able to listen to the 1968 football Falcons.

Paced by WFOB's seven-station network, Bowling Green State University football will be aired by 10 Ohio stations that can be heard throughout a four-state area.

This season, WFOB's network will include WONW, Defiance, WBCO, Bucyrus, WNOB, Newbury, WFRO, Fremont, WTOD, Toledo, and WERT, Van Wert. WTTO, Toledo, WAWR, Bowling Green, and WBGU, the Bowling Green State University station, will also be airing the Falcons' 1968 games.

Veteran broadcaster Dave Carr will be in front of the mike for the WFOB network while Don King will be handling the play-by-play work for WTTO. Jerry McCullen will be the main voice for WAWR while Terry Shaw will be broadcasting for WBGU.

The university's television station will be increasing the Falcons' coverage by taping Saturday's games and then replaying them at 6 p.m. Sunday evening. Tom Willett will be the voice of the Falcons for WBGU-TV.

1. EDDIE COLETTI, 5-10, 190-pound senior from Canton . . . Coletti has lettered with the Falcons for the past two years and has been a good steady performer . . . last season, he carried the ball 50 times and gained 263 yards for a 5.3 average to give him a total of 453 rushing yards for his two-year career . . . he was involved in a motorcycle accident during the summer and this may hurt his early season progress . . . expected to battle Fred Mathews for the first string tailback slot . . . hard working, hard driving type of player . . . All-City selection with the Canton Lincoln Lions, playing both end and halfback.

2. P. J. NYITRAY, 6-0, 180-pound senior from Toledo . . . Nyitray is well on his way toward becoming the greatest passer in Bowling Green's history . . . already owns BG's records for most passes attempted in a game, 25, most attempted in a season, 164, and most completed in a season, 73 . . . seems certain to break records for career passing yardage, most passes attempted and most completed . . . last season, clicked on 73 of 164 for 846 yards and six TDs . . . earned a place in the sun when he came off the bench in 1966 to lead the Falcons to a major 17-14 upset over the Miami Redskins . . . honorable mention All-MAC pick . . . Nyitray earned second team All-City honors while lettering for two years at Toledo Waite High School.

3. CHARLES RADICH, 6-2, 215-pound senior from Brewster . . . Radich is one of the biggest and strongest players on the 1968 team . . . has all the tools to be an outstanding player . . . last year, he finished as Bowling Green's second leading rusher as he came through with 270 yards in 80 carries for a 3.4 average . . . in two seasons, Radich has now rushed for 492 yards in 125 carries for a 3.9 average . . . led the Falcons in scoring as a sophomore, picking up 42 markers . . . good speed for a big back . . . considered a pro prospect . . . at Navarre Fairless High School, he landed plenty of honors while playing both fullback and middle guard for the Falcons.

4. BOB MALTARICH, 6-2, 200-pound senior from East Liverpool . . . after the 1967 spring drills, Maltarich was named as Bowling Green's Most Improved Player . . . he stepped right into a first string defensive halfback post last year and held the job throughout the year . . . this season, he is firmly established at the left halfback position . . . hard to fool, knows his job . . . lacks speed but his reactions and knowledge save him . . . last year, he intercepted three passes and returned them nine yards . . . lettered for two years as a quarterback with the East Liverpool Potters as he won a host of honors including honorable mention All-State.

5. EDDIE JONES, 6-1, 185-pound senior from Canton . . . Jones is probably the best receiver for catching the ball in a crowd and then running with it after the reception that Bowling Green has had in a long, long time . . . last season, he easily led the Falcons in pass receiving as he caught 30 for 374 yards . . . his five TDs also led the Falcons in the scoring department . . . in two seasons, Jones has now caught 70 passes for 899 yards . . . this leaves him with a chance to break Jim Ladd's records of 125 passes caught for 1,341 yards during a career . . . second team All-MAC pick in 1966 as he set two Mid-American Conference records . . . lettered for two years as a defensive back and end under BG's head coach Don Nehlen at Canton McKinley.

Out to win All America again.

In trucks, you don't make No. 1 for thirty years in a row without a tough bunch of fleet-footed pickups in your lineup.

And Chevy's got 'em again in '69.

Fleetsides and Stepsides have new styling. The Longhorn has new length for camping. There's new power in Chevy's engine line. And the interiors are more car-like than ever.

Chevy's time-proven double-wall construction is the most rugged on the road. And when it comes to comfort, Independent Front Suspension and deep coil springs give Chevies a special kind of smoothness all their own.

Why not get in and quarter-back one for yourself at your Chevrolet dealer's soon? Why not Monday morning?

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you'll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
For our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Ball State Expands In All Directions

Ball State University starts its second half century as a state institution of higher learning in Indiana with a new president. Dr. John J. Pruis, former vice president for administration at Western Michigan University, became Ball State's seventh president on July 1, 1968.

He succeeded Dr. John R. Emens, who retired at the end of 23 years of service to Ball State.

Once a teachers college, Ball State became a university by an act of the Indiana General Assembly in 1965. It is now organized into five colleges, Architecture and Planning, Business, Fine and Applied Arts, Sciences and Humanities and the Teachers College. The Teachers College moved into its new 10-story "home" in mid-1968.

Growing at the rate of 700 to 1,000 students a year, Ball State has an enrollment of over 14,500 undergraduate and graduate students.

The University offers degrees ranging from the bachelor of arts and bachelor of science degrees, the master's and education specialists degrees to the doctor of philosophy and doctor of education degrees.

Among the professional programs offered, in addition to those in teacher education, are the five-year architecture program, business administration, dietetics, nursing, medical technology, graphic arts management, and the pre-professional programs in medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, law and engineering.

The University also has associate degree programs in secretarial, printing technology, and food management. Ball State offers a wide variety of instructional opportunities off campus, through its office of Extended Services, for adults who wish to further their education either for credit or for personal improvement at various centers throughout the state.

The newest venture is a course via closed circuit television from the campus in Muncie to a group of registered nurses in Fort Wayne, Indiana. It is an example of the expanding educational opportunities open to students and faculty now that the Indiana Higher Education Telecommunications Network is in operation. The network links the four state universities, the regional campuses, the medical center and teaching hospitals through television, teletype, telephone, and computer.

Ball State is located on an attractive 690-acre campus in northwest Muncie. Comfortable residence halls, new classroom and student service buildings, a modern library and all of the advantages of professional theatre, electronic teaching laboratories, research and closed circuit television are available to students.

Ball State takes great pride in its student services programs which make readily available to all students the professional help of counselors, physicians, psychologists, reading consultants, religious and student program advisors, and full-time residence hall personnel who work with and for students.

There are unlimited opportunities for a student to participate in theatrical productions, music organizations, serve on publications staffs, or belong to any one of some 200 student organizations. The University also maintains a full program of intramural activities as well as intercollegiate sports opportunities for men and women students.

Among the newest buildings ready for occupancy at Ball State this fall is the new Swimming Pool building. The new facility has two indoor pools, one a 49 x 75 foot pool for swimming and the second a diving pool.

The University is also opening 100 town house apartments for married students. Under construction are 150 additional apartments in the Scheidler complex, the Johnson residence hall, and the Life Science building.

"Beneficence", by Daniel Chester French, who did the seated Lincoln for the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D. C., is a famous Ball State University landmark.

☐ Great opportunity. You earn a commission while you earn your college degree. Graduate—you start at the top. Fulfill your military obligation as an Army officer. With officer's pay. Officer's privileges.

☐ Great advantages. Employers prefer a college graduate with service as an officer. Pay more to get him. Because he's a trained, experienced leader. Can handle heavier responsibilities.

☐ Great success. From the 5% of college men who had ROTC training have come 24% of our state governors, 28% of executives earning $100,000 to $325,000 per year, 10% of Congress, 15% of our ambassadors.

☐ Great guys. ROTC men are campus leaders—in ROTC, athletics, extracurricular activities. And they do better scholastically than non-ROTC students.

☐ Great extras. $50 per month in junior and senior years. Scholarships for outstanding students. Free flight training at over 125 colleges. Extra social activities—military balls, honor societies, bands, rifle teams.

Any way you look at it, there's a lot more going for you when you're in ROTC.

Bernie Casey, a former Bowling Green Falcon

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—“Dear Patron of the Arts:

“You are cordially invited to a one-man show in the Coliseum gallery on Sunday which will include several original works by the artist, Bernard T. Casey—chiaroscuros, sideline mobiles, landscapes with white lines, still lifes, in three dimensions and certified genuine by National Football League Commission for Fine Arts. Admission, $5.50. Proceeds go to the restoration of Rams Art, Daniel J. Reeves, president, payments not deductible.”

Bernard Terry Casey is an artist—a statement which will come as no surprise to any safety man or cornerback who has had a pass plucked out of his ear by the long, loping flanker and which will raise no eyebrows on anyone along the 50-yard line. What will come as a considerable surprise to the curator of the court gallery in Copenhagen is that he is also a professional football player.

The notion makes art connoisseurs shudder. Anyone who has ever gone to the movies knows that concert violinists shouldn't become pugs, sensitive poets should not have to write advertising jingles. Sculptors should not have to lay brick. Opera tenors don't auction tobacco. Toscanini wouldn't direct traffic.

Imagine Rembrandt going out for a long one, Titian laying a block, Vermeer on the kickoff team. Painters don't come in cleats and shoulder guards. The worst thing a painter should have to face is starvation or pneumonia in a cold, left-bank garret.

But Herb Adderley shouldn't be elbowing him on a post pattern. A 255-pound middle-linebacker shouldn't be getting a shot at him. Where would the Louvre be if Da Vinci got blind-sided on a down-and-out?

We're proud...

that pHisoHex® has been selected as the antibacterial wash to be used by the U.S. Team for the 1968 Olympic Games!

A winning athlete takes special care of his skin. Above all, he protects it against bacteria that can cause infections and lead to missed practice sessions and games.

If you've ever tried to play with an infected blister on your heel or an abscess on your finger, then you know the role of healthy skin in sports. And that's why pHisoHex is an important part of an athlete's daily health routine.

pHisoHex is America's leading liquid antibacterial skin cleanser in homes and in hospitals. Used regularly in place of soap, pHisoHex produces a superclean skin and builds up an invisible antibacterial film of hexa-chlorophene to protect your skin against germs between washings.

And if you have problem skin, pHisoHex is often valuable. The antibacterial film it leaves on your face will ward off blemish-infecting bacteria. pHisoHex also helps to soften and wash away blackheads.

Use pHisoHex, the skin cleanser of winning athletes.

Made by Winthrop Laboratories, 90 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10016. Available in drugstores in 5 oz. and 16 oz. plastic squeeze bottles.

Break your beard in right.

Right now your beard is in the formative stage.

You can shave it with a razor blade like your father does. And each time you do your beard will grow back a little more difficult. Until one day shaving's no longer a chore. It's an agony.

Look no further than your father's face for proof.

But fortunately, you're catching your beard at an early age. You can break it in to be just as shaveable 10 and 20 years from now as it is today.

With a REMINGTON® shaver.

And if you think the kind of shave we're selling won't be close enough for you, you're wrong.

Our new blades are sharper than anything that's been in an electric shaver before. And there's a dial that lets you adjust them for your skin and beard.

What's more, you can dial a REMINGTON electric shaver into a sideburn trimmer.

Admittedly, it costs more to buy our electric shaver than a razor and some blades.

But it's a good investment.

These next few years will determine how you and your beard will get along for the rest of your lives. ⁺SPERRY RAND™

Despite the loss of four senior veterans, the Bowling Green State University cross country team moves into the 1968 season with considerable optimism. Coach Mel Brodt has five letterman returning, plus a fine crop up from last year's freshman squad.

Departing from the BGSU scene due to graduation are Bob Parks, who holds Falcon varsity records in the three, four, five, and six-mile runs, Bob Knoll, Terry Oehrtman, and last season's number one runner, Dan Sekerak.

The Falcon harriers posted a 5-2 dual meet record in 1967, besides finishing fourth in the Mid-American Conference Championships, plus fifth in the All-Ohio Championships and in the Oakland University (Michigan) Invitational, and seventh in the Notre Dame Invitational.

Leading the 1968 squad will be senior Paul Talkington, from Bergholz, who finished as the Falcons' number two runner last season, despite sitting out three meets with a knee injury. His highest finish was second in the Wayne State meet behind Parks.

Three other lettermen will be returning for the upcoming season, Glen Eppleston, a junior from Denver, senior Ron Nicholson, a Toledo Waite product, and Nate Pantilat, a Tel-Aviv, Israel, senior.

Brodt feels that these four runners should make a strong nucleus for the 1968 squad, but he is especially excited about a sophomore from Manchester, Connecticut, Sid Sink. He stands six-feet even and weighs in at a mere 145 pounds, but he can run with the best of them.

In fact, he broke Parks' freshman records in the three-mile and four-mile races. Sink ran the two distances in 14:24 and 19:46, as compared to Parks' clockings of 14:59 and 20:39 in the same two events four years ago. Sink also holds the five-mile and six-mile frosh records with times of 25:35 and 30:43 respectively.

The Falcons will be facing another grueling schedule, as they run against such opponents as the University of Michigan, Wayne State, Pittsburgh, Kent State, and Ball State, all noted for their fine cross country squads.

Also on the harriers' schedule are appearances at the Notre Dame Invitational, the All-Ohio Championships in Ashland, the Central Collegiate Conference Championships at Wheaton, Ill., and the Mid-American Conference meet, slated for Oxford, Ohio.

All in all, it looks like a promising year for the Bowling Green cross country team, but a lot depends upon the ever present factor of injuries. If the Falcons can stay healthy, there is no reason why they shouldn't chalk up their eighth consecutive winning season. Brodt is hoping for a healthful and happy autumn.

Bowling Green's 1968 Leaders
Co-Captain Dennis Zolciak and Coach Don Nehlen

THE LEADERS

Bowling Green's new head football coach Don Nehlen and the Falcons' 1968 captain Dennis Zolciak figure to complement each other very well this season.

Nehlen, Bowling Green's 11th head coach in the Falcons 50 years of intercollegiate football, steps into his first season as a college mentor while Zolciak, on the other hand, is a proven veteran, having already earned two letters.

However, they have at least one thing in common. Both Nehlen and Zolciak are winners. As a coach, Nehlen has had nothing but success as his high school teams compiled a 33-12-2 record. His five years of experience have been at Canton South and Canton McKinley High School.

Zolciak, who was converted from end to linebacker when he entered Bowling Green, has always been a first stringer. Last season, he was named to the second team All-Mid-American Conference squad.
